

Solares de Portugal with 2 new members in Alentejo and Douro

TURIHAB, the Portuguese manor house association has two new members in Solares de Portugal network: Quinta da Veiga in Sabrosa – Douro region joins the group of Quintas & Herdades, and Casa do largo in Crato – Alentejo Region joins the group of Casas Antigas.

Quinta da Veiga – overlooking the Douro River

Quinta da Veiga is located on the right bank of Douro. Nearby the Ferrão's train station, the privileged stretch between Régua and Pinhão, and characterised by schist slopes with excellent sun exposure at an altitude of 170m-220m. This area, known as Veiga do Donelo, was formed by smallholdings in past times (XVII century), which formed in our days one single property, named Quinta da Veiga a producer winery of Port and Douro wines.

Situated inside of the classified Douro World Heritage Area, this Estate of 50 ha was reconverted into a country tourism Manor House "Turismo de Habitação". At the main house there are 7 doubles rooms for welcoming guests, decorated with comfort and stylishness, witch price starts from 110 Euros (price per bedroom, 2 paxs, with breakfast included). The restoration of this elegant farm house was very conscientious to keep the original building architecture and materials, and to maintain its traditional characteristics.

Inside and outside of the Manor House you can experiment the strong identity and a sense of aesthetic of the owners. The Quinta da Veiga surrounded by wine terraces, the gardens and the swimming pool, benefits from a fantastic landscape over the River Douro

Casa do Largo – the traditions of Alentejo

Located in Alto Alentejo, in the historic Town of Crato, the Casa do Largo is an old Manor house that has been fully refurbished and adapted to Country Tourism (Rural Tourism-Turismo de Habitação).

It is a very welcoming family house, which takes pride in its friendliness, comfort and refined details such as the Tiles (azulejos).

Casa do Largo maintains an intimate atmosphere, thanks to the small number of guest rooms (7 Doubles /Twins), all restored with comfort and good taste, witch price starts from 110 Euros (price per bedroom, 2 paxs, with breakfast included).

The breakfast is excellent and here the children are very welcome, the Owners redecorated a games room exclusively for them.

At the outdoor terrace is located a poll for a refreshing swim or just to relax and read a Book. The attentive staff is happy to arrange rental bikes for you, making it easy to explore the region's attractions. Casa do Largo is a perfect Place to stay for the lovers of the heritage and the nature.

Invites for a short drive to Serra de São Mamede Natural Park, or to visit the most unknown Alentejo
