

Casas no Campo expand the group of country-houses in Sintra and Alentejo

Is Time to use your Time, to enjoy the magic of the nature and the countryside

Casas no Campo has 3 new members, the “Casa de Nossa Senhora do Socorro” in Sintra, the “ECOLAND – Casa das Cores” in Mértola and Monte do Sobral in Viana do Alentejo. All of this country houses have a privilege location to enjoy the nature and the magnificent country side, such as the Natural Park of Sintra-Cascais, or the Natural Park of Guadiana Valley as well as the preserved landscape of Alentejo. Visit our site www.casasnocampo.net and request more information about the offer of Casas no Campo a group of country houses, cottages and exclusive villas, refuges of comfort and independency.

Casa de Nossa Senhora do Socorro/Solar do Magoito – Quality and wellness near Sintra

Situated in the privilege village of Magoito, within the Natural Park of Sintra-Cascais, the Casa de Nossa Sra. do Socorro/Solar do Magoito is a fantastic place to relax and to enjoyed the surroundings beauty and its magnificent gardens. Located just a 2km from the sandy beaches of Magoito, this comfortable country house is surrounded by beautiful pine threes and provides a very big range of wellness and leisure facilities such as two swimming pools, tennis court, children playground and games room. With a privileged location, the Casa de Nossa Sra. do Socorro/Solar do Magoito distance only 2 km from the beautiful beach of Magoito, 10 km from the historic classified UNESCO World Heritage the town of Sintra, 30 km from Lisbon convert this country house into a pleasant place to discover a vast and rich region full of patrimony or just to spend a relaxing holiday, enjoying the range of activities in the idyllic environment. Visit our site in www.casasnocampo.net

ECOLAND – Casa das Cores – a colourful seat to discover the Alentejo nature

The ECOLAND - Casa das Cores is a lovely recuperation of a small rural house. This charming place is located in the centre of the Corte Gafo de Cima village, in the Alentejo region, distance 7 miles from the historical town of Mértola and is situated within the Natural Park of Guadiana Valley. Indoor, is well-coming and very colourfully, the decoration combining the traditional and modern. All the rooms are painted in different warm colours: Yellow, Salmon, Blue and Green, Purple and Red... as used in Alentejo region. With a remarkable Moorish influences and a very personal touch, the furnishings are simple and comfortableIn the back side of the house the small and private garden invites you to introspection and to take a tea in the pleasant balcony.

The ECOLAND - Casa das Cores is a perfect place to visit the region and exploring the Parque Natural do Vale do Guadiana. Here you will find many suggestions to have a very relaxing holiday. Visit www.casasnocampo.net to request information or to book the accommodation.

Monte do Sobral – a Peaceful environment to enjoy the deep Alentejo

Monte do Sobral is a magnificent farmhouse reconverted into Agro-tourism. In the profound Alentejo between the towns of Alcáçovas and Viana do Alentejo, is an excellent and very informal seat for who wants to have a break from the busy cities. Surrounded by 4 ha of land the Monte do Sobral, was till 1974, a big estate of 2,000 ha with extensive agriculture. Monte do Sobral provides a range of sportive activities such as swimming pool (covered and heated), a games room with snooker, football table, tennis table, a children playground and a badminton court. There are also additional activities at the farm grounds and in the region to be discovered: hunting, shooting and archery, horse riding, rambling trips, tours and some aquatic sport in the dam, kayak or canoe are available. Monte do Sobral has a privilege location to discover the authentic Alentejo. For more information or request about Monte do Sobral, please visit the site www.casasnocampo.net

These are the 3 new proposals of the Casas no Campo – www.casasnocampo.net – an invitation to a peaceful stay in harmony with the rural and natural environment.