

Casa do Ribeiro

In Guimaraes County, district of Braga, in the parish of S. Cristovão do Selho, is located the old Casa do Ribeiro.

Ever since 1688 until now, people of the same family live there.

Is a building with a sketch in U, surrounded by a high wall, where is the main gate with a delightful scenical result, having in the middle the Arms Stone. We can reach the inward, after trespassing the big gate and crossing the central area of the House; going up by the big stone stairs in opposite to a round arch.

This House was repaired in 1975, preserving the initial architecture.

Is surrounded by quiet forests where guests can enjoy walking, findinh here and there natural fountains.

Casa do Ribeiro has comfortable living and sitting-rooms as well as bedrooms and a big balcony; all long the garden, we can admire a very artistic fountain.

Is now property of D. Maria do Carmo Pinheiro de Azevedo de Bourbon e Menezes Ferraz Pinto, who agreeded to have in the House some bedrooms to the ones who enjoy quietness and stillness.
